

How to Righteously Pick the Enemy's Pocket
and Take Back What Was Stolen from You

Calvary greetings ...

... and welcome to this brand-new channel.

Have you ever heard the phrase: wealth transfer?

There has certainly been a lot of that going on lately.

The past two years have witnessed a massive transfer of wealth from millions of small businesses all over the world ...

... into the coffers of gigantic global corporations under the guise of a pandemic.

By most accounts, four trillion dollars of wealth have been transferred to these mega-corporations.

500 new billionaires have been created as a result.

On the other hand ...

Millions of small, family-owned, or independent business, popularly known as mom-and-pop stores...

... which at the best of times often struggle to compete with more substantial establishments, such as big-box retailers...

... have been wiped out while the Walmarts, Targets, Carrefours (Europe) have been thriving like never before.

There's more.

They shut down the churches ...

... and most Christian organizations without any care in the world but kept liquor stores wide open.

They weaponize the virus against small businesses while the big corporations are given all props, bailouts, and incentives.

Small Christian-owned businesses have been disproportionately affected.

In case you are not aware, those who self-identify as Christians make up 31 percent of the world population.

Many have been forced to close their businesses permanently.

Let me assure you that there is more than enough wealth being released from heaven's storehouses for the benefit of God's people.

However...

What is happening is that the enemy is using the cover of this pandemic to ...

... transfer the wealth of God's people to God-hating mega corporations who in turn use their vast resources ...

... to push their agenda such as abortion, transgenderism, and anything that is against our Christian values.

Water, Water Everywhere But None to Drink

If you've been with us for a while, you already know that to succeed in virtually any area of life today requires some knowledge of spiritual warfare.

Take, for instance, the area of marriage and relationships.

Our Singles Program is nothing short of advanced spiritual warfare.

A few decades ago, it would have been unthinkable to suggest that you have to go into spiritual warfare just to find your godly spouse!

But what's the reality today?

Just look at this war story from the Singles Forum.

The Singles Forum: Theater of Advanced Spiritual Warfare

"I have so many (testimonies) that I could write a book. Just this morning I dreamed that there was a snake creeping on top of my body and it was near my face and I started calling on the name of Jesus continually and guess what it moved away immediately and tried to escape (keyword here...tried because there was no way such a trespass can be forgiven) I could not let it escape ...

I immediately took the sword of the Spirit (I always reinforce it with the consuming fire of the Almighty God and the Fire of the Holy Spirit so it is very, very lethal and gives instance justice) and cut off its head, then crushed its head with the hammer of the Living God and burned it with consuming fire of the Living God and sent the ashes to the bottomless pit. I was not taking any prisoners.

I then instantly started washing my entire body with the Blood of Jesus until I felt clean again. Oh I, forgot to mention that every night before I sleep I always add this bullet:

"I shall not fear the fear of the heathen, any power sent to attack me in the physical, the spiritual and in the dream receive triangular attack from the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost."

This one allows you to sleep so peacefully and become a flaming fire when any attack comes by.

There are times when I am sitting in my room and I sense something is not right and when I start praying I rebuke disease causing agents sent through witchcraft, demonic and satanic attacks and as I pray I start washing myself with the Blood of Jesus and visually see the disease as it fades away and I am washed clean. There is power in the Blood of Jesus, wonder working power.

She was not even doing this for herself.

She told me:

“I have entered this program to pray for my son, my daughters and my niece... I don't want them to go through what I have gone through because no one stood in the gap for me. I didn't have any knowledge about having a godly spouse!”

That's in the area of marriage.

Now look at this one.

Dream Strategies & Provisions

My family and I were introduced to this prayer community in 2013 and jumped straight into it with determination. The prayers were so timely because my son (10 years old at the time) was doing competitive chess and we were shocked to realize how much witchcraft was practiced by others who desperately wanted to win.

During this time, from 2013 - 2019, firing these prayer bullets strengthened us so much in the spirit that my son had many victories because of dreams given to him by the Lord on what to play in his games. The Lord would also show us plots of the enemy to cause harm, that we were able to pray against successfully.

One time, my son had to travel to Greece for an international tournament and we had only one week left to obtain funds. By using the covenant-keeping God prayer, we were able to secure sponsorship in time for him to participate. There are many other times the Lord provided through sponsorships as well and looking back we are still in awe of His goodness! All honour to the Lord...

So you see...

The devil has turned every arena of human endeavor into a battlefield.

Nowhere is this more concentrated than in the area of business.

As I thought about it, the Holy Spirit showed me a picture of Christian businesspeople as builders.

Building the physical infrastructure to support the spiritual kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always remember that Christians built the hospitals, schools and other bedrock institutions that have become the cornerstone of Western civilization.

Most of those ventures started small ... really small ... but grew and multiplied under the mighty hand of the LORD until they eventually became global institutions.

In the Bible, the builders always had prophetic guidance.

Think Ezra and Nehemiah.

They owed much of their success to the prophetic guidance of two notable prophets.

We read:

And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. - Ezra 6:14

Now the enemy has secretively succeeded in transferring the wealth of God's people over the last two years ...

... there remains only one way to respond.

The time has come for a ...

Reverse Transfer of Wealth Into the Hands of God's People

I want you to note that what happened in Egypt just before the Exodus was a reverse transfer of wealth.

For 400 years the children of Israel were forced to give their labor freely to Pharaoh without charge.

What did they get in return?

Oppression. Slavery.

When deliverance came, we read this glorious verse:

The LORD had made the Egyptians favorably disposed toward the people, and they gave them what they asked for; so they plundered the Egyptians. – Exo. 12:36

It was TAKE BACK time.

But it happened not in the way anyone expected.

God works in mysterious ways.

This mentorship program will remain a mystery until the results become undeniable.

However, it is not for everyone.

It is designed for Christians in business.

Strictly by invitation.

You may be a good fit if your business has an online component.

You are in the sweet spot if you run an online business, or you are thinking of starting one.

For one, there are tons of ways to lose money to scammers online...

... who specialize in over-promising but under-delivering.

They promise heaven and earth ... but deliver almost nothing.

This mentorship has both a spiritual and marketing component.

The spiritual side gives much-needed prophetic guidance.

The marketing side shows you where your likely customers are to be found online and how to get to them.

For this marketing side, I asked for help from one of the top online advertising experts.

He usually operates behind the scene, avoiding all attention.

Not surprisingly, he got on Facebook's radar when they discovered that his ad agency clients were outperforming everyone else in their category by a wide margin.

They hastily reached out and invited him to visit their campus to share his wisdom and strategies.

He will be posting his Facebook Advertising Masterclass shortly under the advertising category.

You may have heard me saying that 50 percent of visitors to our websites now come from social media.

That is a direct result of his efforts.

If you are selling anything online, all the customers you'll ever need can be found ... if you know where to look.

I have asked him to share his wisdom and expertise with those running online businesses because ...

... without a reliable traffic source, no business can survive for long.

The competition for prospects and customers has intensified in the last few months ...

... with millions being fired from their jobs owing to vaccination mandates or leaving their jobs voluntarily to try their hands on business.

Many are making such costly mistakes and even losing their life savings in a desperate effort to draw traffic to their products and services.

This mentorship program will help them avoid those mistakes, while helping focus their energy and limited resources on what really counts.

There is a qualification process before one can be accepted in the program.

More details to follow soon.
