Unlocking “Prayer Power” to Gain Admission Into A Top US School

Four years ago, two high school students met at the Stanford University summer camp. They became friends and roommates.

One had lived in California all her life. She wanted a change of scene. A super brilliant student with perfect scores in Math among others, she was already a shoo-in for admission to Harvard.

The other had lived most of her life on the East Coast. She was eager to get away from the snow and cold. She loved California weather and decided to apply to one of the top schools in the area... one almost as competitive as Harvard.

There was only one problem.

Unlike her roommate, her grades were not that great. Her chances of getting into that school was slim to none. She was determined to study and do her best. Even at that, she was still at a considerable disadvantage.

However, she had one thing working in her favor.

Her parents were hardcore prayer eagles who had been with us in the prayer trenches from the very beginning.

As far as they were concerned, nothing was too difficult for the LORD. So, they called me and asked for prayer support.

A few days later, in my prayer altar, the LORD gave me these prayers for them.

I quickly typed out a page with the prayer bullets and sent it to them that night.

Together with their daughter, they decided to take the prayers every night as she sent out her application packages and sat for the necessary exams.

Not long after, her brilliant friend called to confirm that she had indeed been admitted into Harvard.

As for her, things were not looking so good.

All the schools she had applied to were sending rejection letters.

All the schools but one.

She waited.

Undaunted, the eagle parents kept praying.

Finally, it came.

She was accepted into the one school she wanted most.

Below are the prayers.

They worked for her then.

They will work for anyone now.

Praise the LORD who answers prayers.
